Applied Econometrics: Topics in Labor Economics
Prof Ingrid Hägele
LS (Seminar)
Wintersemester/winter semester 24/25

This course will cover fundamental methods in applied econometrics with a focus on research in labor economics. We will discuss how econometric methods can be applied to tackle empirical problems in economics and public policy analysis. It provides background on issues that arise when analyzing non-experimental social science data and a guide for data-driven tools that are useful for empirical research, especially with respect to large scale data sets.
